Description of item: (name of part/item, what will it fit, what size, what color, etc.) _____

What is the retail value of the item? _____

Please note:

- People who give items to be auctioned may receive a receipt for the item as long as you obtain the information on the "Donor Form" with the "Donor" stating a retail value of the item.
- Donated food and other services to help with the event are tax deductible if the individual keeps the receipts for their own tax records. Feed The Children doesn't issue receipts for these items. We will send a thank you letter acknowledging their help which combined with their receipts for the donation can be used for tax purposes.
